RCA Donates $10,000 To South Jersey OIC

Donation of $10,000 by the Radio Corporation of America to the Southern New Jersey Opportunities Industrialization Center has been announced today by the Rev. Charles Blake, chairman of the board of OIC.

A check for that amount was presented to Rev. Blake by Arnold K. Weber, Vice President of RCA, responsible for Defense Electronic Products and Graphic Systems organizations, at a ceremony in the company's administration building at Camden, N.J.

More than forty persons were present, including community leaders and officials of RCA. The RCA Service Company, at Cherry Hill, was represented by A.L. Conrad, President and Thomas W. Massoth, Manager, Administration, DEP, conducted the presentation ceremony.

The OIC is a vocational-educational training program for underprivileged citizens. A campaign to raise $100,000 to finance its operation is now under way, with Herman Rappaport, Camden pharmacist, as chairman.

Camden's OIC, launched this summer by Rev. Blake, pastor of the Macedonia AME Church, 261 Spruce Street, is patterned after the program founded two years ago at Philadelphia by Dr. Leon Sullivan. The executive director of the Philadelphia OIC, the Rev. Thomas J. Ritter, was a speaker at the ceremony and described the progress of the organization in other parts of the country.

OIC's program is to provide training in vocations such as the building trades, electronics work, secretarial work, food preparation and machinery operations. Classes have been under way in the Camden center since July 11. In Philadelphia, permanent jobs were found for 85 per cent of the OIC students in the first two years, and Rev. Blake told the group at the presentation that he believes this achievement can be equaled or surpassed in the South Jersey area.

In presenting the $10,000 check Mr. Weber observed that "the formation of the local OIC means more than just job training for disadvantaged members of the minority groups in Camden."

"It is a step forward in helping to strengthen the economic development of this area," he said. "For without an adequate supply of trained and qualified people, industry cannot continue to prosper and grow. It is important that both industry and the citizens work together in such a program because of the obvious benefits to all who live or work in this community."

Noting that RCA and its personnel had long been active in community programs, Mr. Weber said that in the same spirit the company welcomed the opportunity to support the OIC.

Award Presented To Samuel C. Jackson

Commissioner Samuel C. Jackson of the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, was awarded the F. AND M. Schaefer Brewing Co. Community Achievement Award on Sunday, October 30, 1966.

The National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's 11th Annual Founders Day Breakfast audience heard Commissioner Jackson, as speaker, declare that "there are any number of government sponsored scholarships for youngsters that come from fairly substantial homes, but unless some means is found to begin the process of bringing the severely disadvantaged youngster into 20th century society, the major cities of this country will have an almost unsolvable problem".

Commissioner Jackson is a native of Kansas and had practiced law in Topeka before accepting the presidential appointment to the Equal Opportunity Employment Commission.

Mr. Jackson resides in Washington along with his wife and two daughters.

Floating Aerostats In Bamberger Skies

All is not tinsel that glitters, testify an army of display artists working under the expert direction of Bamberger New Jersey's Robert McCorkle, Display Administrator. More than 150 display personnel are currently mounting the holiday exhibits in Bamberger's eight statewide stores. More than one thousand gleaming ascension-device balloons will cascade from every corner of the stores, festooned with a variety of materials... mother-of-pearl, crystals, imported silks and cut-glass snowflakes.

The aerostat balloons, of the sort made famous by Phineas T. Fogg of AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS fame, and by the bumbling Wizard of Oz, have been designed and created by the talented team of Bamberger display artists. Billowing clouds will appear to swirl between main floor columns, with the multi-colored, floating cloud cars descending. The largest aerostats will be eight feet long, the diameter of their 'parachute' globe four feet. Many of the silk balloons will revolve against the main floor ceiling. Each golden basket, or gondola, will be spilling over with tiny gift-wrapped packages.

The theme the travelling balloons convey is that of the giant airlift from Europe to New Jersey of thousands of unique, import gifts, as well as the five million dollar collection of art treasures to be exhibited in the Newark store.

The Gallery of the Masters, opening to the public Monday, November 7th, will be located on the fifth floor, Newark. Its structure and decor are also the handiwork of the store's Display Department. The gallery will be designed with a Renaissance theme, with gold leaf arches and columns, and brilliant red brocades. A Shower of Diamonds fountain marks the entrance. The paintings will be lit from floor level, the lamps concealed behind banks of flowers.

In readiness for holiday adornment, the main floor of the Newark building has been totally modernized. More than a hundred workmen have labored since early summer of this year, widening aisle space, installing brightly-lit showcases and redesigning the floor pattern of departments so that compact little shops, in the boutique mode, form island shapes. Shopping convenience will be enhanced by the more open floor plans, and holiday shoppers will find the familiar main floor a transformation, with its airy displays of bobbing ascension on-balloons and glittering winter clouds.

Larrie West Stalks

Larrie Stalks Named As Acting Director Of The Health & Welfare Dept.

Political history was made here Friday when Mayor Hugh J. Addonizio announced that he would appoint Mrs. Larrie West Stalks as acting director of the Department of Health and Welfare. The post pays $20,000 annually.

Mrs. Stalks, executive secretary of the Planning Board since June, 1962 will succeed Dr. Pascal J. Baiocchi who resigned to accept appointment as the first medical director for the federal government's Newark postal district.

Although Mrs. Stalks will serve on a temporary basis beginning Monday until Dr. Baiocchi's term expires on Jan. 5, 1967 the city council is expected to confirm her appointment to the permanent position.

This will make Mrs. Stalks the first of her race to be appointed head of a city department, and the highest ranking Negro in the city administration.

She served previously in the City Water Department and was for many years the mayor's home secretary when he served in Congress for 14 years.

A prominent ward leader and Democrat all of her young adult life and a brilliant speaker, Mrs. Stalks received citywide commendation last week when she chaired an interracial and bipartisan testimonial dinner for her brother, Calvin D. West, the first of his race to be elected as a Councilman-at-large earlier this year.

She is life membership chairman of the Newark Branch NAACP, a member of the American

Museum Program

The Newark Museum, 49 Washington Street, has announced a Monday morning lecture series on "The English House" for Museum members and the public. The illustrated lectures, to be given by J. Stewart Johnson, Curator of Decorative Arts, will begin on November 21, at 10:30 a.m., and continue on November 28, December 5 and 12. Registration for the series of four lectures ($5 to members; $10 to the public) is open through November 18.

In the series Mr. Johnson will trace the development of the English house from medieval times through the early 19th century, with emphasis on the great houses of the 17th and 18th centuries. He will discuss architecture, decoration and furnishings, with some attention to landscaping.

Mr. Johnson has just returned to the Museum from a three-month leave as a Research Scholar in the Victoria and Albert Museum in London. During his stay, he travelled throughout Great Britain, visiting and studying the great houses. A collection of hundreds of color slides made on his travels will be the source of illustrations for his talks.

Mr. Johnson, a former Winterthur Fellow, attended the Attingham Park Summer School in England in both 1965 and 1966. The school, sponsored by the English National Trust, enables its members to take part in extensive tours of English country houses, many of which are not usually open to the public.

NEWARK IN PROGRESS, 1966-67, a dramatic exhibition depicting Newark as a "city of the future" by showing its urban renewal and public and private building commitments for the next ten years, opens at the Newark Museum on Thursday, November 10. The show will close on January 15.

NEWARK IN PROGRESS is the final exhibition in the Museum's year-long series of shows honoring Newark's 300th anniversary. After devoting ten exhibitions to various aspects of Newark's past—from the "Price of Newark," paid by the founders of local Indians, to a survey of artist Adolf Konrad's paintings of Newark in the 1940's and 50's—the current show looks to a changed and brightening future for the City.

William H. Hastie

Leaguers Announce Hastie As Speaker

Reginald C. Hale and George J. Haney, co-chairmen for the third annual dinner of The Leaguers, Inc., to be held December 1 at the Military Park Hotel, Newark have announced that the principal speaker for the banquet will be the Honorable William H. Hastie, United States Circuit Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the Third District, Philadelphia, Pa.

It was also announced that New Jersey Governor Richard J. Hughes has accepted an invitation to attend the affair.

Judge Hastie, a member of the President's Commission on White House Fellows, was born in Knoxville, Tennessee, November 17, 1904. He graduated from Dunbar High School, Washington D.C., in 1921 and subsequently received the following degrees: A.B. Amherst College, 1925; LL.B. Harvard University, 1930; S.J.D. Harvard University, 1933. Judge Hastie has received the honorary degree Doctor of Laws from the following colleges and universities: Hampton Institute 1946; Virginia State College 1947; Lincoln University 1950; Ohio Wesleyan 1951; Knoxville College 1952; Rutgers University 1953;

Howard University 1955; Yale University 1957; Central State College 1959; Amherst College 1960; Temple University 1961; University of Pennsylvania 1961; Atlanta University 1964; Dropsie College 1965; Allegheny College 1965.

From 1925-27, Judge Hastie taught at Manual Training School Bordentown, New Jersey. He was admitted to the bar of the District of Columbia in 1931. There he began the active practice of law with the firm of Houston & Houston of Washington, D.C.

Judge Hastie has held the following positions: member of faculty, Howard University School of Law, 1930-37; assistant solicitor United States Department of Interior, 1933-37; judge of the District Court of the Virgin Islands, 1937-39; dean Howard University School of Law, 1939-46; civilian aide to the Secretary of War, 1940-42; member, Caribbean Commission, 1947-50; Governor of Virgin Islands, 1946-49.

Judge Hastie is a Fellow, American Academy of Arts and Sciences; a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Omega Psi Phi fraternities.

Manpower Training Projects Continue Through November

Joseph E. Partenheimer, Project Director of the Business and Industrial Coordinating Council's Labor Management Manpower Training Project (LMMTP) said today that despite termination of the Project on November 30th, new pre-vocational training courses for the unemployed and underemployed are still being started.

On Monday, October 31st, in co-sponsorship with Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, a second course was started advanced, office worker training. Twelve adult women entered the program. They will receive instruction in business English, advanced typing, business arithmetic and bookkeeping, personal grooming and self-motivation. Some will also be eligible for keypunch and other business machines training.

RCA in Harrison is co-sponsoring with LMMTP its second Mechanical and Technical Comprehension course for 30 males, which began last night (November 2, 1966). This program gives instruction in shop math, learning the use of handtools including a micrometer, drilling, tapping, milling, lathe operation, hardening, grinding assembly and blueprint reading. The program's objective is to quickly make trainees acceptable for entrance-level jobs in the metal working

Red Cross To Record Free Holiday Messages

American servicemen around the world will be able to hear personal holiday greetings from their loved ones again this year, through the Red Cross "Voice From Home" program. This is a special project of the Essex Chapter Service to Military Families Department which sends recorded messages from the families of military personnel to their men in uniform serving overseas, free of charge.

Recording sessions, which take about 30 minutes, are supervised by trained Red Cross volunteers. A prepared sheet suggesting ideas on what to talk about and how to plan the taping are provided as are mailing containers and postage.

Letters have been sent to the families of more than 500 servicemen in the Essex Chapter area inviting them to make one of these free recordings and listing the dates and times during which appointments can be arranged according to Mrs. Frank Low of Orange, chairman of the Service To Military Families service.

"It isn't necessary for anyone with a close relative serving overseas to wait for an invitation to make a recording," says Mrs. Low. "All they have to do is contact us for a date."

The offer is also being made to the families of hospitalized veterans and the foreign born wives of U.S. military personnel. In the West Essex area, some foreign exchange students have also been included.

Voice From Home messages will be taped at the Essex Chapter Headquarters, 232 South Harrison St., East Orange Monday through Friday, Nov. 21 to Nov. 25, except for Thanksgiving Day, from 2:30 P.M. until 7:30 P.M. and on Saturday, Nov. 26 from 9:30 A.M. to 2:30 P.M. from Monday, Nov. 28 through Saturday, Dec. 3 recording hours will be the same.

West Essex District Headquarters, 14 Park Ave., Caldwell will also hold taping sessions on Tuesday, Nov. 29, from 6:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. and on Thursday, Dec. 1 at the same time. On Saturday, Dec. 3 the hours will be from 9:00 A.M. until 4:00 P.M.

In the areas of the Oranges, Maplewood, Newark, Belleville and Bloomfield an appointment for a recording date can be arranged by contacting the Essex Chapter at 674-4074. In the Caldwell, Livingston, Essex Fells, Roseland, Verona, Cedar Grove and Fairfield, contact West Essex District at 226-0738.

Mrs. David G. McMillan of Caldwell, chairman of Service To Military Families for the West Essex District will be in charge of the Voice From Home program in that area. She will be assisted by Mrs. J. Arthur Martin, Jr., Essex Fells, and Mrs. W.E. Gregg, Jr. of that community, Mrs. Dean A. Baldwin, North Caldwell and Mrs. Paul O'Brien, Cedar Grove.

This year, for the first time, a group of patients from the East Orange Veterans Administration Hospital have volunteered to assist in making recordings at the Essex Chapter. They will be joined by another group of students from Seton Hall College.

The Voice From Home program was first undertaken in this area six years ago by the Oranges and Maplewood District. Last year, the West Essex District joined in. Requests for this unique Red Cross service have increased each year with the growing availability of standard tape recording equipment on military posts, ships and in service clubs where our men in uniform can hear the recorded messages.

Schaefer Theater

A realistic, heartwarming drama about a family of itinerant sheep drovers in Australia will make its New York television debut as a Thanksgiving Eve color attraction when "The Schaefer Award Theatre" presents "The Sundowners" on Station WCBS-TV, on Wednesday, November 23 at 11:30 p.m.

Starring Deborah Kerr, Robert Mitchum, Peter Ustinov, Glynis Johns and Dina Merrill, "The Sundowners" will be seen, as are all "Schaefer Award Theatre" presentations, uncut and with only four commercial interruptions.

"The Sundowners" is the story of a 1920 family of sheep drovers who make their living by traveling through the bush country in a wagon, a horse and a tent. The picture is about their adventures. It contains all of the elements necessary for an outstanding movie — stars, human interest, suspense, action and pathos.

"The Schaefer Award Theatre" is sponsored by The F. and M. Schaefer Brewing Company, represented by Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn, Inc.

SAINT PETER

BY VELÁZQUEZ

THIS PAINTING IS VALUED AT ONE MILLION DOLLARS AND IS ON VIEW TO THE PUBLIC FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE WESTERN WORLD

Almost all of the principal works of Velázquez are in the Prado in Madrid. Except this one. We came upon this masterpiece in the home of Señor Florentino Pombo Romero Robledo, a Madrid magnate who had inherited it from his Aunt, the Countess of Fuenteblanca. It is one of the three Missing Apostles from the Velázquez collection. Some of the Velázquez Apostles are in the Prado. Saint Paul is in the Museum of Art in Barcelona. Saint Thomas is in the Museum of Orleans. Saint Peter is at Bamberger's. This immortal work was painted in the early 17th century, when Velázquez worked with Herrera the Elder in Seville, and it is a brilliant exercise in the simplicity for which this great master was to become renowned. When you come to see it study it closely. Notice the Apostle's shirt. It was painted with just four brush strokes. This is the first, and perhaps the only chance you shall ever have to come face to face with the infinite truth and beauty of this masterpiece. Bamberger's sincerely hopes you will not deny yourself or your children or their children this moving experience.

Several of the members of Negro Affairs Committee have proposed that the committee should be organized along the lines of the "National Negro College" which they have organized in New York City. They are headed by Benjamin B. Davis, Jr., Communist Party member, and Arthur J. Levin, first vice president of the League of African Americans. The group is a forerunner of the National Negro College.

William C. Miller, president of Village Mutual Insurance Co., Detroit, chairman of the conference said, the managers will help corporate leaders maximize the management function. The concept stands for making the business more efficient using primary and secondary data to establish objectives. Management by department and product line is emphasized. The program admits planning, forecasting and research.

Schaefer To Sponsor Pair Of Sport Events

The prize fight between world middleweight champion Emile Griffith and challenger Joey Archer will be televised live and in color as a special attraction of "The Schaefer Circle of Sports" on a regional East Coast network on Thursday, November 10. It will be seen in the metropolitan New York area one day later on Friday, November 11.

Sponsored by The F. and M. Schaefer Brewing Company, the bout will be seen as it is taking place at New York's famous Eighth Avenue area of boxing, Madison Square Garden, at 10 p.m., NYT., in Philadelphia on Station WPHL-TV; Boston, WNAC-TV; Providence, WTEV-TV; Norfolk, Va., WVEC-TV; Scranton, WBRE-TV; Syracuse, WNYS-TV; Portland, WOSH-TV; Binghamton, WBJA-TV; Bangor, WLBZ-TV; Washington, WDCA-TV, Lebanon, WLYH-TV, and Springfield, WHYH-TV. It will be seen on WHNC-TV, New Haven, on Nov. 10 at 11:30 p.m.

It will be seen in New York on Station WOR-TV on Friday, November 11, at a time to be determined.

Veteran boxing authority Don Dumphy will provide the commentary.

The November 10 bout will be a re-match for Griffith and Archer. They previously met on July 13 and Griffith retained his title on a split decision.

The Griffith - Archer middweight championship prize fight is being presented as another feature of the 52-week-a-year "Schaefer Circle of Sports" series.

Horsereading Events

One of the year's biggest afternoons of thoroughbred racing for television spectators will be on tap on Saturday, November 12, when "The Schaefer Circle of Sports" presents a doubleheader featuring the Garden State Stakes from the Garden State track in New Jersey and the Roamer Handicap from the famous Aqueduct course in New York City.

Sponsored by The F. and M. Schaefer Brewing Company, the Roamer Handicap will be seen from 4:30 to 5 P.M., NYT., on Station WNEW-TV, New York.

The Garden State Stakes, one of the season's outstanding events for two-year-olds, will be televised from 4 to 4:30 p.m. NYT., from Garden State race track on Station WPIX, New York. WHS - TV, Boston; WTN - TV, Albany - Schenectady - Troy; WBRE-TV, Scranton; WMAR-TV, Baltimore; WFIL-TV, Philadelphia; WGAB - TV, Lancaster; WJAR-TV, Providence; WTOP-TV, Washington; WHEN-TV, Syracuse, and WTIC-TV, Hartford. Springfield. Run at a distance of 1 1/16 miles, the race is one of the outstanding events for two-year-olds of the year. It has a purse of $125,000 added with an estimated gross value of $300,000.

Ed Gorman and Tommy Roberts will be the commentators for this "Schaefer Circle of Sports" presentation.

The Roamer Handicap is an event for three-year-olds over 1 3/16 miles with a $50,000 added purse.

Win Elliot, Brad Capossela and former jockey Conn McGarry will share the commentary for this telecast.

Both the Garden State and Aqueduct telecasts will feature videotape re-runs and analysis of the feature races plus interviews with the winning jockey and other racing personalities.

"The Schaefer Circle of Sports" is sponsored by The F. and M. Schaefer Brewing Company, represented by Hatten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn, Inc.

Meadowlark Lemon

To Sing On Records

Meadowlark Lemon, The Clown Prince of Basketball and star of The Harlem Globetrotters for the past 10 seasons, has been signed to a recording contract by R.S.V.P. Records. His first record, released this week, is the hit song of a few years back, "Personality" backed with a new teen-age dance created by Meadowlark, called "Shoot-

A-Basket".

Hoping to combine two careers, he will devote as much time as possible to singing in between his basketball schedule which takes him to seven cities a week during the season.

An interesting sidelight to the recording session was the choice of arranger, Herb Bernstein.

Columnist Charges Black Power "Phony"

"Black power" is a phony cry, a plain old - fashioned hoax," charges Carl T. Rowan in the November issue of Ebony.

"Isolation is a trap."

"The shoutings of 'black power,' he continues, 'have less force in our real, cruel world than a fantasy born of a good slug of LSD.'"

The noted newspaper columnist and former government official—one of America's best-known Negroes—has authored a special article for Ebony, lashing out at "black power" and its advocates.

"Had the Klan or the White Citizens Councils hired the best brains in the country to divide Negroes and render them vulnerable to a segregationist onslaught, they could not have dreamed of the present spectacle of Negroes wasting their energies and brainpower fighting each other," Rowan contends.

Rowan takes sharp issue with 'black power' advocates Stokely Carmichael of SNCC, Floyd McKissick of CORE and Congressman Adam Clayton Powell.

"I am as proud as the next Negro. I want to see black men holding every legitimate power they can seize in our society. But I recognize the old 'separate but equal' argument when I hear it.

"What appears to be an appeal to the Negro's pride is, in fact, an effort to flatter black men into believing that the short end of the stick is really the fat of Willie Mays' bat. Generations of enforced isolation of the Negro proved that 'there ain't no such animal' as separate but equal; and voluntary isolation of the Negro isn't going to produce any such animal."

In Ebony Rowan speculates on what would happen if the 'black power' philosophy should give Negroes control of, for example Lowndes County, Alabama: "If the Negroes were pursuing a 'black power' policy of total isolation, white - man - be - damned, where are the wholesalers who would provide the county's groceries, its clothing, its oil and gas for heating? Who would transport vital supplies into the county and how would they pass through hostile white Alabama? If the Negro proposed to farm the land, where would initial credit come from and to what market, Negro or otherwise, would he sell his cotton, his peanuts or other produce?"

"To gain freedom," Rowan continues, "the Negro in Lowndes County desperately needs the sympathy, the help, of Negroes everywhere, most of all that much-abused Negro middle class that has some money. And he needs the help of the courts that SNCC and CORE deride. He needs the power of the Justice Department and the prestige of the White House and the pocketbook of the federal treasury. He will need the pressures that can be exerted by a large segment of white America."

Negro Religious Leaders Condemn Black Power

Negro religious leaders representing some 10 million American Negroes across the United States today adopted a manifesto condemning the term "black power" and calling for a more active participation by Negro church leaders in the struggle for civil rights.

Attending a Summit Conference of Negro Religious Leaders on the Present Crisis in the Civil Rights Struggle, in Chicago, the 250 representatives unanimously adopted the manifesto outlining several steps which must be taken if, in their terms, "the civil rights struggle is to succeed in the future."

The manifesto, read by Bishop

Joseph Gomez, presiding bishop of the Fourth Episcopal District, A.M.E. Church, Cleveland, Ohio, had been prepared by a drafting committee of nine Negro church leaders.

Underlying the manifesto and the entire spirit of the conference was an appeal for a return to law and order in the civil rights struggle. As stated in the manifesto, Bishop Gomez reminded the representatives that "As a race, we must not allow the failures of others to embitter our spirits.
